Chapter 1: The Affliction of Prophet Ya‘qub (AS)

A Brother’s Concern: Signs of Sorrow

Prophet Ya‘qub (AS) had a spiritual brother who, upon observing the signs of deep sorrow upon him, gently inquired into the nature of his affliction.

A Brother’s Inquiry:

Brother:

"Ya‘qub! Why have your eyes dimmed, and why is your back bent?"

A Father's Grief: Loss of Yusuf and Binyamin

In response to his brother's compassionate inquiry, Prophet Ya'qub (AS) revealed the profound source of his anguish—the separation from his beloved sons, Yusuf and Binyamin.

Ya'qub's Response:

Ya'qub (AS):

"My eyes have dimmed from weeping over Yusuf, and my back has bent because of sorrow for my son Binyamin."

The Arrival of Jibril: A Message from the Divine

Following this heartfelt exchange, the angel Jibril (AS) descended to Prophet Ya‘qub (AS) bearing a message of divine admonition.

Divine Rebuke:

Jibril (AS):

"Allah Almighty sends you His greetings and says: 'Are you not ashamed to complain about Me to others?'"

In response, Ya‘qub (AS) humbly clarified the true recipient of his lament.

Ya‘qub (AS):

"I only complain of my condition and grief to Allah."

Jibril (AS) responded with gentle reassurance.

Jibril (AS):

"I know what you complain of, Ya‘qub."

Supplication and Longing: A Plea for Mercy

Weighed down by grief, Ya‘qub (AS) turned his heart toward Allah in earnest supplication.

Ya‘qub’s Supplication:

Ya‘qub (AS):

"O my Lord, will You not have mercy on the old man?
You have taken away my sight and bent my back.
Return them to me so I may smell his fragrance before death, then do with me as You will."

Divine Assurance: Glad Tidings and Guidance

Jibril (AS) returned once more, bringing with him a message of divine reassurance and heavenly promise.

A Message of Hope:

Jibril (AS):

"Allah sends you His greetings and says: Rejoice and let your heart be glad! By My Might and Majesty, if they were dead, I would bring them back to life. Therefore, feed the needy, for among My servants, the most beloved to Me are the Prophets and the poor."

Cause and Consequence: The Reason Behind the Trial

The angel Jibril (AS) then conveyed the divine rationale behind Ya'qub's (AS) suffering and the conduct of Yusuf's brothers.

A Divine Explanation

Jibril (AS):

"Do you know why this happened? Why your eyes went blind and your back bent? And why Yusuf's brothers behaved thus? You once slaughtered a sheep, and then a poor orphan fasting came to you, yet you did not feed him anything."
